

Peggy Baker: Teaching in Philadelphia

Monday-Friday

November 28-December 9, 2011

10 a.m. to noon

Performance Garage

1515 Brandywine Street

SEPTA: Broad Street (orange) line,
Spring Garden station

This two-week series of master classes is offered for professionally committed dancers without charge. Advance registration is necessary. Telephone Lucy Warrington at Dance Advance to reserve your space, 267.350.4970. Regular attendance is encouraged and those who register are given preference based on date and time of enrollment in the class. Classes will be instructed with live musical accompaniment by Tim Motzer (electric guitar).

Work(s) on View²

Friday, December 9, 2011

5 p.m.

Performance Garage

1515 Brandywine Street

Work(s) on View² is an informal showing of choreographic sketches by Peggy Baker performed by Bethany Formica, Greg Holt, and Shannon Murphy. This showing is free of charge. Please RSVP by phoning Dance Advance at 267.350.4970.

Dance Advance

The Pew Center for Arts & Heritage
1608 Walnut Street
Philadelphia, PA 19103
www.pcah.us/dance

This workshop is sponsored by The Pew Center for Arts & Heritage through Dance Advance in cooperation with the Drexel University Dance Program.

Photos of Peggy Baker by Cylla von Tiedemann.

